Meeting Objectives

Upon participation in this activity, attendees will be able to:

- Determine the appropriate use of vinorelbine in combination with cisplatin in the treatment of patients with lung cancer;
- Describe emerging agents in the treatment of indolent relapsed or refractory non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma and their possible indications in treatment;
- Utilize ASCO resources to improve awareness of both scientific and legislative updates that may impact the oncology practice;
- Effectively assess the financial health of their oncology practice, and incorporate strategies to further improvement.

Accreditation

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint sponsorship of the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO) and the Louisiana Oncology Society. The American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO) is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The American Society of Clinical Oncology designates this educational activity for a maximum of 4.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
